INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors Trading Partners, Inc. Wayne, Pennsylvania

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Trading Partners, Inc. (an S Corporation) as of December 31, 2005 that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit of the statement of financial condition provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Trading Partners, Inc. as of December 31, 2005, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to Statement of Financial Position December 31, 2005

Note 1 - Organization and Line of Business

Trading Partners, Inc. was incorporated in Pennsylvania on June 10, 1988. The Company is a NASD registered broker dealer and realizes commission income from securities trading on behalf of institutional investment firms and others located throughout the United States. The Company does not carry security accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities.

Note 2 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Income Taxes

The Company has elected to be taxed as an S Corporation whereby all income is taxed directly to the stockholder. Accordingly, the Company does not record a provision for income taxes.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the Statement of Cash Flows, the Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with a maturity date of three (3) months or less as cash and cash equivalents. The Company is required by the NASD to deposit amounts due to customers in a segregated cash account by the second business day of the following month.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation is provided on the straight-line method over the useful lives of the assets.

Commission Income

Commission income and related expenses are recognized on a settlement date basis.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Pension Expense

The Company maintains a SAR - SEP Plan for all of its employees. An employee ay defer up to the lesser of 25% of compensation or $14,000 in 2005 and the employer may make a discretionary contribution. The Company made no discretionary contributions in 2005.

Notes to Statement of Financial Position

December 31, 2005

Note 3 - Net Capital Requirements

Pursuant to the net capital provisions of rule 15c3-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Company is required to maintain a minimum net capital, as defined under such provisions. Net capital will fluctuate on a daily basis. The Company had net capital of $308,677 at December 31, 2005.

Note 4 - Leases

The Company leases office space from its sole stockholder under a year to year lease. Rent expense paid to the stockholder in 2005 was $36,000.

Note 5 - Customer Research Advances and Unearned Commissions

The Company provides various investment-related research services to certain of its customers and by agreement is compensated for these services in the form of brokerage commissions in an amount equal to or greater than the cash value of the services. Research service expenses and the related revenue are recognized in the month in which the expense is paid. At December 31, 2005, the Company had received commission income in excess of the cash value of services provided in the amount of $12,197. These unearned commissions are included with aggregate indebtedness for purposes of the aggregate indebtedness calculation.

Note 6 - Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments which potentially subject the Company to concentration of credit risk consist of cash deposited with financial institutions, which exceed FDIC insured limits from time to time.

Note 7 - Investments

The investments held by the Company are stated at quoted market value. Investments are accounted for as available-for-sale securities. At December 31, 2005, investments consist of the following:

Quantity	Investment	Cost	Market Value	Unrealized Gain
1,600 300	,		$ 56,288	$ 33,238
$16, Expiring June 27, 2006	$16,	1,650	5,754	4,104
		$ 24,700	$ 62,042	$ 37,342

Note 8 - Commission Income

Commission income represents $331,175 of commissions earned net of $80,551 of commission rebates to customers.

Notes to Statement of Financial Position

December 31, 2005

Note 9 - Subordinated Loan Payable

The Company has a subordinated loan payable to Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated in the amount of $150,000. The note is due on July 15, 2006 and requires monthly interest payments at 6.50% per annum. The cash proceeds were used as part of the Company's net capital. NASD has determined that the subordination agreement is acceptable.
